"WISE" CROPPER WANTS TO RIDE

Is Anxious to Try Conclusions With Famous Bucking Bull.

NOTED MAN HUNTER'S VISIT

TELLS STORY OF CAPTURE OF NEY GANG OF ROBBERS.

Shariff George W. Cropper and former Representative C. W. Watts of Millard county, are in Salt Lake and feel that their trip has not been a success.

Sadness came to them yesterday after-tion at Agricultural park, where they went for the purpose of picking up some there prepared to bet from $200 to went there prepared to bet from $200 to $2,000 that either of them could ride the "critice." At one time it looked as if they would get a bet, but before they could reach the man who flashed the "buli" money he had changed his mind about it and refused to bet with them.

Wherefore, the Millard county men are saidened. The sheriff, widely known through southern Utah for more than a generation as "Wise" Cropper, is particularly cast down.

Friends urged Mr. Cropper to relate the story and at length he consented:

After Bigger Game.

"All this happened twenty years ago or more," he began. "At that time there was so much horse steeling going on in the country that we had a sort of detective organization in Millard county to lay for horse-thieves. A bunch of fellows went into camp near Descret that winter. As near as I can remember now, they were Ney, Francis, Earl, Holly and I think a man named Anderson and one other. Anyway, there were six of them. That didn't look good to us, so I had a man join their gang to see what they might be up to. We thought they would do a bit of horse stealing. He had not been with them long when they told him they were going to do bigger business than horse stealing, but didn't tell him what it was. Finally they pulled out, leaving him behind. We heard no more of them for a while. Then a Central Pacific train was held up at Toana. Nevada, and the express car robbed, although the robbers didn't get much. There was quite a fight at the time and we think one of the robbers didn't get much. There was quite a fight at the time and we think one of the robbers didn't get much. There was quite a fight at the country then. The Wells-Fargo people sent down a detective. Turner came. Deputy Fowler and we outfitted quite a posse sat Descret. As near as I can remember now we had in addition to the robbers and broosters. As near as I can remember now we had in addition to the remember now we had in addition to the remember now we had in addition to the remember of the gang was the near the propose at Descret. As near as I can remember now we had in addition to the robberg of the gang was killed in the heldup. The officers from Toana had a blood trail to follow part of the way and we figured that the reason we found Ney and Holly alone was that they had dropped behind to bury the dead robber. Whose name we never learned. We never learned Holly's true name. He was a young fellow of good education. He told me it would kill his folks hac

HAY FEVER ABOLISHED

Medical Science Discovers a Cure For This Malady by Breathing Hyo-

Stomach dosing cannot cure hay fever. A change of climate is the only treatment that gives any relief, and Hyomei, which medicates the air you breathe, acts upon this principle, giving in your own home a climate as healthy as that of the White mountains or other health resorts.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but 1, extra bottles, 50 cents. F. C. Schramm has seen the good effects fol-lowing the use of Hyomei in so many cases of hay fever that he is willing sell the treatment with the understand-ing that if it does not give satisfaction the money will be refunded to you.

Ney and Holly Sighted.

"We figured these fellows would head into what was called Swazey's springs in the Antelope range. I knew about where this spring was, but to be sure of it, we sent a man hamed Webb to Ibex to get a guide named Craft. Before Webb got back with Craft, we struck part of our gang. Ney and Holly were the men we met. Turner and I were riding a little ahead of the rest of the bunch when all of a sudden Turner yells: T see 'em, Wise;' There came a couple of fellers towards us and only about 200 yards away. We dropped off our horses and hitched them in some cedars. Then we crept ahead and Turner yelled out; Throw up your hands! Instead of that the men dropped off their horses and opened up on us with their rifles. By this time the rest of our crowd had come up and some of them started to shoot back. Bill Black's gun went off as he was bringing it up and the bullet went into the ground. The detective fired a shot straight up in the air. A second later a bullet hit right between Turner and me, throwing dirt all over us. The two in front were warming us up pretty good. 'H—— Bishop,' I says to Black,' 'We can't stand this! We've got to do some shooting ourselves!' How far do you make it?' Turner says to me. 'Two hundred and fifty yards.' I told him Let's get their horses, he says. You see the men were covered by their horses. Turner and I each picked out a horse and both of 'em went down. Turner killed his horse in its tracks, but I only wounded mine in the head and it was up again in a second.

Taking in Ben Tasker.

Colonel George M. Hanson of Ogden lived in Millard county in his earlier years and he is authority for the following account of the sheriff's arrest of the famous Ben Tasker abeut twenty years ago. The sheriff went to Tasker's cabin and knocked on the door. He did not knock with his hand, but with the business end of a sawed-off shot gun. Tasker opened the dodr. In the outlaw's hand was a cocked revolver, but the cold muzzle of the shotgun barrels were right in his face, while the sheriff's high falsetto rang out: 'Drop your gun. Ben. or 'I'l blow your whole — head off." Ben dropped his gun.

There really didn't seem to be anything else for him to do just at that time, and he was gracefully gathered in.

Sheriff Cropper, being a native of Texas, is naturally a Democrat. His friends in Millard insisted on nominating him for sheriff last fall, and, although Millard shared the fate of most of Utah and went Republican by about 350, the sheriff was elected by a majority of 70 votes. He is well known in his home county and the people there rightly assumed that if occasion arose for the services of a man who knows how to deport himself in a rough play. 'Wise' Cropper would be in evidence at the right place and at the right time.

OF INTEREST TO OFFICE MEN.

OF INTEREST TO OFFICE MEN.

It has been generally reported that A. R. Derge & Co. have been gradually closing out their office supply department. Such is not the fact, however, as Mr. D. A. Callahan, who has purchased the entire business, has decided to make this a leading feature of the establishment. With this end in view he has secured one of the most competent men in the west to take charge. This department has been greatly enlarged and now contains everything that should be found in a well appointed Office Supply House. Call and get acquainted with our stock and prices. D. A. MURRAY FIGURES ON LIGHT PLANT Smelter City Plans to Cut Loose From Utah Light & Power Co.

CITIZENS BELIEVE THEY CAN IM-PROVE SITUATION.

Now the ambitious young city of Murray is figuring on the establishment of a light plant. Ten years or more ago a city. Through'a deal with R. M. Jones, who then had a power plant in the Big Cottonwood, this Murray company was absorbed. In the deal a contract was entered into with Jones to furnish power and light for Murray for ten years. That contract will expire the 1st of next January.

in the meantime the R. M. Jones plant in the Big Cottonwood was swallowed up by the company that finally developed into the Utah Light & Railway company. This is the present status of the case. The citizens are fairly well satisfied with the service they have been getting recently, although up to the past year there were many protests because of poor serv-cently, although up to the past year there were many protests because of poor service. What they fear is that should they enter into another ten-year contract, the service would fall off again. They also fear that the old company will hold them up as to prices when the present contract expires.

The movement to establish an independent plant has not yet taken definite form, although a number of the leading citizens of Murray have had the matter ounder consideration for some time past, and have held several consultations. The present understanding is that the plant will be a private one and that the city will be supplied with light and power on contracts.
